WAGNER NOW

GREAT PLAYER

Wagner's long service and his great series of past performance entitle him to be considered the greatest of living players, if not the greatest ball player of all times. Six batting championships have been his portion since he entered the National league 12 years ago, while this year he has outdistanced all other batters. His fielding also is one of his great assets. He rarely falls down on a difficult ball, and can throw to first base, or anywhere else, from almost impossible angles while stooping, or standing erect. Here are his batting averages since he broke into fast company:

Year	G.	A.B.	H.	Pct.
1897	61	241	83	.343
1898	143	531	180	.339
1899	144	549	197	.358
1900	134	523	201	.380
1901	141	556	196	.352
1902	137	538	177	.329
1903	129	512	182	.355
1904	132	490	171	.348
1905	147	548	199	.363
1906	140	516	175	.339
1907	115	415	159	.385
1908	161	568	201	.354

LIVE BASE BALL TIPS

Waterbury at Newfield this afternoon.

The next league leaders over on Eagle Street to-morrow. New Britain always did wallop the ball at Newfield.

Tommy Downey connected for a home run off Leon Ames in the New York-Cincinnati game yesterday.

"Rube" Pollard has been recalled by Manager O'Rourke from the wilds of Glastonbury, where he has been recuperating for a few weeks. "Rube" now says he is in condition to twirl a good game.

Now comes another pitcher by the name of Thomas S. Payne, from the Elizabeth team of the Atlantic League. As usual he comes with a good record. There will be no comment on how good he is in his new position. The name suggests agony, but there is hope that he may not cause any.

Bannister held the Orators to one hit in seven innings yesterday. Two hits the day before. If that speed is kept up there will be quite a drop among those .300 batters.

Pollard was sent to bat for Ossie Schmalz in the ninth inning yesterday, but could not do anything. Oswald has trouble of late trying to meet with the ball.

Manager Connie Mack of the Philadelphia Americans has the laugh on some of the other big leaguers who paid all kinds of money for players who have not been doing anything extra. Krause, the unbeaten pitcher, went straight to him from college. Bender was secured for nothing. Barry was taken from Red Sox for $500. Baker, who has proved such an improvement on "Jimmy" Collins, was secured in a trade for Lelivelt and Litschke.

Detroit gained a few points in the American league race yesterday by defeating Washington while Philadelphia was losing to New York.

A decision by Umpire O'Brien, in the ninth inning of the Northampton-Springfield game, in Northampton, yesterday, nearly caused a riot, he being escorted to the railroad station after the game by the police. O'Brien called Walsh out on second while trying to stretch a single into a double. The crowd took exception to the ruling, and began to throw stones. It is stated the game will be protested.

To bolster up the Boston Americans in the box, the management have signed up another college pitcher, Ray Collins, who has tried for the University of Vermont for the past four seasons, winning 37 out of 56 games.

"Swat" McCabe of the New Britain still continues his terrific batting yesterday, connecting for three hits, two of them good for three baggers. New Britain lost the contest because Ray Fisher was twirling for the Senators.

Devlin's hitting was the feature of the Red game yesterday, the Giant third baseman making four hits, two singles, a double and a triple off Campbell.

After to-morrow's contest there will not be another game here for a week, then the Orators will be home for three days in succession.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

(By Dick Barrett.)
Some class to the West End Boys' Club trouncing the strong Ansonia team Sunday at Ansonia, 14 to 5.

Maybe the Nukies won't play classy ball over at Walnut Beach where they are camping. Well, we will leave that to "Mustache" McGuire, for he is the cook and ought to know.

The West End Sluggers will play the Fairfield Stars at the Bostwick avenue flatland Saturday afternoon at 6 o'clock. The battery for the West End Sluggers will be Bender and Yuhaus.

The Knowltons would like to play the Western, Jr., Sunday morning at the East End freight yards, at 10 o'clock. Answer through the Farmer.

Wonder who blackened "Mussey" Moran's eye. He cannot blame it on the ball for he wasn't anywhere near a ball Sunday afternoon.

Wanted—A new secretary in the Park City League. Apply at once.

Wonder how the St. Charles' stand in the Park City League, first or last?

The All-Star team which has just been organized would like to play the St. Charles for some amount of money, at the mud flats whenever the St. Charles are ready to play. Wish the manager would look this over as all the players are under 19 years old and would like to hear from him. Will give line up when they get the challenge. Address Manager of All-Stars, P. O. Box 102, City.

WOLGAST WALLOPS BATTLING NELSON

Lucky for the Dane That the Lightweight Championship Did Not Hinge on Battle.

(Special from United Press.)

Los Angeles, July 14.—Fight fans today declare it is a lucky thing for Battling Nelson that the lightweight championship of the world did not hinge on his ten round battle last night with Wolgast, the Milwaukee lad. For if it had Wolgast would have been champion. Ten gruelling rounds before the Pacific A. C. at Naud Junction last night Wolgast whipped Nelson fairly and properly. Nine of the ten rounds were counted for Wolgast who struck four blows to Nelson's one and had the champion "covering up" all the time. Although Nelson was game and kept "boring in" as he always does, Wolgast was his master and was reaching him with terrific rights and lefts to the jaw. Nelson could not avoid the heavy wallops and he was forced back a dozen times in the latter rounds.

Throughout the fighting Wolgast landed continually on Nelson's face and had his adversary bleeding from the second round. Wolgast showed scarcely a mark of the encounter. At the finish Wolgast looked strong and fresh while the Battler's face was covered with blood and his mouth and nose were cut and swollen.

Even in the clinches where Nelson had whipped many a less hardy man, Wolgast only a feather was good as the champion and made it an even break in every one of them. Wolgast had Nelson dazed and clinching repeatedly. Wolgast tried hard to put his man out in the last round and sent in some blows that would have stopped many a less hardy man.

Schmalz in the ninth inning yesterday, but could not do anything. Oswald has trouble of late trying to meet with the ball.

Manager Connie Mack of the Philadelphia Americans has the laugh on some of the other big leaguers who paid all kinds of money for players who have not been doing anything extra. Krause, the unbeaten pitcher, went straight to him from college. Bender was secured for nothing. Barry was taken from Red Sox for $500. Baker, who has proved such an improvement on "Jimmy" Collins, was secured in a trade for Lelivelt and Litschke.

COLE BEATS LYMAN IN UP STATE GAMES

Annual Tennis Tournament for the State Championship Opens Auspiciously in Litchfield.

The annual tennis tournament for the State championship opened yesterday morning on the court of the Litchfield Club. The weather was ideal, a light rain falling in the early morning serving to put the court in excellent shape. Entries from all sections of the East appeared, the interest in this season being more keen than ever.

In the afternoon play F. W. Cole of Hartford defeated L. Middlekuff of Brooklawn 6-3, 6-4. F. W. Cole of Brooklawn beat G. Lefter of Hartford by default. A. Lyman of Brooklawn beat H. Kawoski of University of Pennsylvania by default. The second round was started in the afternoon, Cole defeating Lyman 6-2, 6-1.

By EDWARD PAYSON WESTON.
Suisun, Cal., July 12.—The heat was so intense yesterday, the thermometer 110 in the shade, that I did not reach Dixon until after midnight. In addition to sending two extra men to pilot me over the trestles, the superintendent of the Sacramento division of the Southern Pacific Railroad issued the following order to conductors and engineers:

"Mr. Weston, pedestrian, is on district between Sacramento and Davis, walking. All engine men keep careful lookout for him on all trestles, and come to a stop if necessary when finding him on trestle to allow him to get to and of it."

Thus I was made free from anxiety, on one of which I straddled along within twelve inches of the track to allow a train to pass. I took a nap of two hours on a railroad truck in Dixon, and then came here, and shall go at least to Benicia tonight, thirty-seven miles, leaving about thirty-four miles to walk into San Francisco.

THIRD DAY'S BATTLE OF GLIDDEN TOUR

(Special from United Press.)

Chicago, July 14.—At 7 this morning the first contesting car in the Glidden tour got under way and the third day's battle with sand and mud was on. Today's journey is to Madison, Wis., via Milwaukee. At Madison the cars will be parked for the night. The tour has been practically free from accidents so far. The list of penalizations on which three cars were placed at the end of the first day's run was increased after yesterday's run by Brush runabout No. 108 getting four-tenths of a point demerit for adjusting a cone in a front wheel. Chambers-Detroit No. 1, Brush No. 104 and the McIntyre buggy No. 110 also drew slight additional penalties. The distance of today's run is 175.5 miles and the running time scheduled will be eight hours and fifty minutes.
